Please explain the reason for nomination (explanation may be attached below): *

A lot of kids who would otherwise have no Christmas know Chris only as Santa Claus. His tireless work every year on a toy drive he started brings joy to thousands of underprivileged youth. Many other people know him as the "Everybody Love Everybody" guy. These are only two of the countless activities he does to bring recognition and pride to the people of Trophy Club.

Some kids know him as coach from his volunteering to Trophy Club youth sports. Other people know him from his coat drive or his breast cancer fund raisers.

I am fortunate and blessed to know him as my friend and neighbor. Not a week goes by that I am not humbled and inspired by the effort he puts into helping others.

Chris performs these acts selflessly and without asking anything for himself. I believe he embodies the qualities a Citizen of the Year should possess and is deserving of the award many times over.
